Dear Commissioner:

On June 5, 1998, we received a Notice to File Missing Parts of Application requesting a small entity status statement and a declaration. On or around August 18, my secretary, Rebecca Joyce, telephoned your office. The examiner she spoke with indicated that there was in the file a copy of the declaration, but that the small entity status statement was missing.

I am enclosing herewith copies of the following documents which we mailed to the Patent and Trademark Office on March 23, 1998:

1. A Power of Attorney by Assignee;
2. A Statement Claiming Small Entity Status;
3. A Declaration for C-I-P Patent Application;
4. A transmittal letter; and
5. A postcard indicating receipt of the above by the PTO.

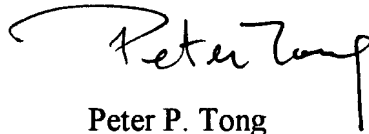

As indicated on the transmittal letter and the postcard, the Patent and Trademark Office should have already received the small entity status statement.

In reviewing the situation, if you determine that a late fee is due, you are authorized to deduct the appropriate amount from our Deposit Account No. 06-1325.

I hope the foregoing clarifies the situation. Please contact me if you have any questions or require further documentation.

Thank you for your kind attention to this matter.

Very truly yours,
